

#Career EXPO

INTRODUCING You TO PUBLIC SERVICE CAREERS

Make YOUR IMPACT!

Making the world a better place starts not only from within yourselves, but within the organizations positioned to serve communities. Human Resources is the most basic, altruistic journey you can take on your career path. What better way to serve? Serve the ones who are serving YOUR community!

HR PROFESSIONALS

- Talent Recruiter
- Organizational Development
- Benefits Expert
- Risk Management
- Policy Interpretation
- Contract Negotiations
- Employee Engagement
- Employee Development
- Compensation Analyst
- Strategic Partner
- Talent Management

Did YOU know?

Human Resources is the one career that can impact all other departments in an organization. HR professionals are strategically placed to help others succeed.

Local government can be YOUR grassroots opportunity to make the world a better place. Public service careers can help YOU create the culture for YOUR community.

YOUR TALENTS needed...

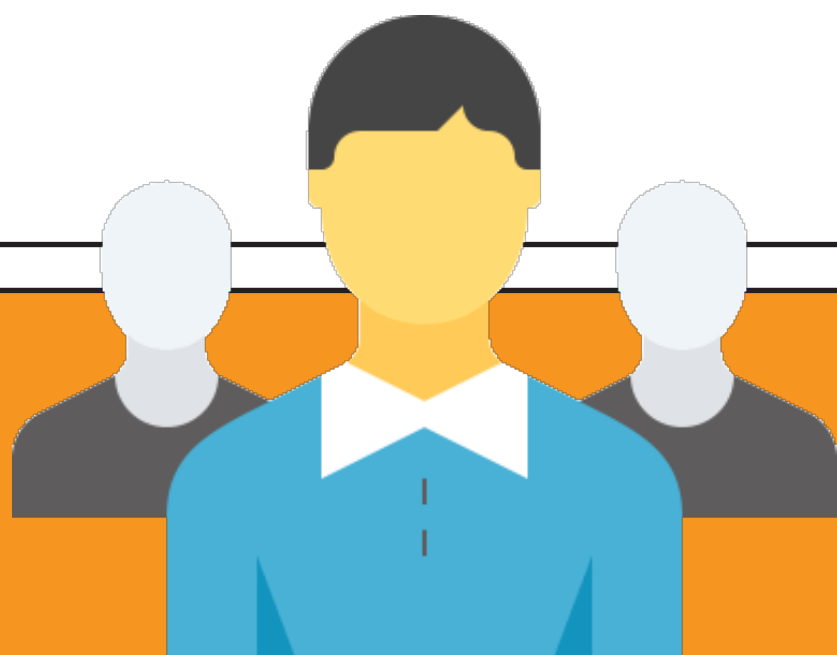

- Active Listening
- Speaking
- Critical Thinking
- Reading Comprehension
- Analytic Thinking
- Writing
- Active Learning
- Collaboration
- Ability to Influence Others
- Ability to Interpret Rules

YOUR SUCCESS begins with...

Jobs in Human Resources require at least a 4-year degree. The GOOD news?—It doesn't always have to be an HR degree! Many business, social service, legal degrees can easily transition to a career in human resources.

LEARN more...

Check out CareerExpoKC.org for more information on positions in human resources, duties and educational requirements.

Find your path in ...

HUMAN RESOURCES